What to do next...

- Check your U of M email account regularly at mail.umn.edu. It is the official method of University communication. If you have not activated your email, go to www.umn.edu/initiate.
- Complete your New Student Checklist by logging on to my.umn.edu and selecting the college tab.
- Set your New Student Orientation date beginning April 7. Information about this program, as well as other requirements that must be completed before orientation, will be sent to you from your college of enrollment.
- Mark your calendar for Welcome Week, September 1-6, 2010. All new students are required to attend. To learn more, visit www.welcomeweek.umn.edu.
- Take the initiative to ask questions if you have concerns or are unsure about the orientation process.

Document Check

After arriving on campus, international students must visit International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) for Document Check. ISSS will review your visa documents and verify your immigration status to make sure that you’re eligible to take classes. ISSS is located in 190 Humphrey Center on the west bank of campus. Visit www.isss.umn.edu/new/docCheck to find out the hours for Document Check.
