20. Why did you not attend New Student Weekend?

Other (please specify)

i wanted to spend my last weekend with my friends at home.

Felt I would meet people as soon as I got to campus anyway, didn't see it as necessary

I was on a 2 week trip to Scotland early August and wanted to spend time with my friends and family before going to college

I was working

I was currently on a flight from Dever to Minneapolis

Work.

I was still working at home and it didn't work to leave for the U of M at that time earlier

I wanted to spend time with friends before we all left for separate colleges.

I didn't know about it.

I had marching band Spat Camp.

I live in Nebraska and the trip to the University was at a bad time.

Health Advocate Training

It was my 18th birthday weekend

Wanted to spend more time at home.

I was out of town in Chicago.

I found out too late to be able to get enough money before the deadline.

wanted to spend last weekend at home.

We had soccer

Football.

i dint want to go and I was not going to pay over 100 $ for something i dint want to do

Sounded lame again

I was on bed-rest from surgery at that time.

Not living on campus and the weekend's benifit was that you got to move in early

It was over my birtday, and I didn't want to move in a whole week early.

live too far away to drive here again

Heard it was not very fun from previous people that went to it.

I spent the time with my friends at home before college.

forgot it.

Didn't have time

I didn't think it would be all that worthwhile.

family from out of state in town

I had conflicts with my work.

during the state fair

didn't know and never heard about it.

I didn't have the time, I was working up until the end of summer.

I had a conflict with the timing

I am from the Twin Cities so I didn't feel the need to spend a weekend away meeting people because I was confident that I would meet a lot of people in the dorms.

I had marching band

I attended the multi-cultural kick-off

I had to work.
